

A very special guest came to pay a socially distanced visit to our school today. He didn't use his sleigh and we think the reindeer are resting. Instead he came on a very special Citybus with one of his elves. All children had such a wonderful time on-board in their class bubbles.